Do You Call It Good Service or Poor Practice?

WHEN in the Autumn, you go into a seed store and ask for a favorite variety of bulbs, and the clerk tells you that he hasn't it in stock, but offers you something "just as good," or "practically the same," do you consider that you are getting proper service? The main reason for issuing our bulb catalog at this time of the year is that answers such as given above will not be necessary.

We want to give our customers an opportunity to select their Dutch bulbs while they are in flower, as flowering time is the right time to order bulbs for the following Spring's bloom. Selecting the varieties from your own garden, or your friend's garden, while in bloom gives you the opportunity of obtaining those particular shades you like best.

Order Dutch Bulbs Before July 15th

If you desire to import rare, wild Crocus or wild Tulip species for your rock garden or your hardy plant border, the time to do it is in June or July, because it is impossible for any importer to stock all these choice bulbs that are being used today, and which are available in Europe. The better varieties of Breeder Tulips and Darwin Tulips are in great demand, both here and abroad. The result is that these choice varieties are sold out early and no matter how high a price we are willing to pay for this fine stock, no more is to be had at any price. And the old saying, "First Come—First Served" holds good in filling bulb orders as well as in other transactions. Therefore, order from us before the 15th of July, instead of waiting to buy from a local dealer in the Fall; you invariably get a finer bulb at less cost.

When we receive your order before JULY 15TH, a copy of it is sent to Holland immediately, and as soon as the bulbs are harvested, your order is packed in Holland by men who thoroughly understand how to select bulbs. Each order is done up in an individual package. These individual packages are put in cases which are sent to our warehouse, usually early in October.

Immediately upon arrival from Holland we open these boxes, examine the separate shipments, and forward the bulbs to you in the best possible condition. We do not believe that there is any other importer in America who has been able to make these unusual arrangements for taking care of individual orders. It is as far as we know, the best way to import bulbs.

Under these arrangements, we are not able to send orders for less than $5.00 each to Holland, nor are we able to sell less than five bulbs of a single variety, except where prices are quoted by the single bulb. If you wish to take advantage of our SPECIAL IMPORT PRICES, we must have your order, preferably at once, but NOT LATER THAN JULY 15th. Bulbs need not be paid for until after they are delivered, and if you do not like them after unpacking and examining, you may return them to us. Customers who have no account with us should send references with their order. All prices are f. o. b. Mentor.

Darwin Tulips

The Darwin Tulips were developed in the north of France, supposedly from choice varieties of Bybloem Tulips. Owing to the unusual clearness of the colors, to the substance of the petals, and to their vigorous growth, these seedlings, when they came into the hands of the prominent Dutch firms, seemed worthy of forming a new class of Tulips. In 1889 they were named in honor of Darwin, and offered for sale. They remained little known for a number of years but with renewed interest in the Tulip, which sprang up in England at the beginning of the present decade, they commenced to receive attention. In America the Darwins are now widely appreciated, and their popularity here promises to exceed the favor they have enjoyed so long in Europe.

The colors include the brilliant scarlets and crimsons, and the more somber tones of red. The shades of rose and pink, of violet, and purple are unsurpassed for their delicacy or their richness of color. There are slate blues and blue-violets which might almost be called blue, while Dumas' "Black Tulip" is very nearly realized in some of the dark maroon varieties. There are no yellows. All the bronze and buff tones are Breeders; while bright yellow and orange-scarlet must be sought among the Cottage Tulips. The Darwins may be left undisturbed for two years, but it must be kept in mind that Tulips are not long-lived in our soil and climate, but if taken care of, we have known them to last ten years. The collection offered in this catalog is made up from the best varieties offered for sale in Holland. All have been tested at Wayside Gardens and we stand behind each one of them.

The figure following the name indicates the relative time of flowering.

New Darwin Tulips

On this page are listed the finest Darwin Tulips ever introduced, and are beyond doubt the most exquisite varieties in existence.

Each

Avalon. Large pure white flowers with black anthers. Tall and strong stem.
A wonderfully fine flower, very useful because there are so very few white late flowering Tulips	$ 5.00
Blush Queen. Delicate rose turning to blush white when in full bloom; large flower of oval shape; strong and tall stem. Height 28 inches	5.00
Cherry Blossom. Bright cherry blossom pink; flowers are shaped like a rose-bud, delicately edged white, center bluish white. Large flowers on strong and not too tall a stem. A marvelous Darwin Tulip of great beauty	5.00
La France. A gloriously soft self colored Darwin Tulip of delicate La France pink. We have named this Tulip after the well known rose of this color. Large, well formed flower, center pure white. Stem is strong and not too tall. Anyone who admires the rose La France will admire this variety	8.00
La Tosca. Large, sulphur-yellow flower, egg-shaped with a darker yellow center. Strong growing plant; flowers are carried on a tall and strong stem; one of the very few yellow Darwin Tulips. A wonderful creation ...	15.00
Lavender Beauty. Lavender-blue, edged lighter blue on the outer petals. Tremendous large flower on a strong and tall stem. The largest Tulip of this color in existence	6.00
Liberty. A beautiful rosy lilac Tulip, the outer petals are shaded slightly darker, center is pure white. General effect is commanding. An outstanding variety	8.00
Lilac Wonder. A color which has up to now not been known in any Tulip, the flower is porcelain-blue with a white center edged heavenly blue. Stem strong and not too tall. A wonderful novelty which will have a great future.	8.00
L'Innocence. A white Darwin Tulip with a short petalled flower of great substance; anthers are grayish white. A very fine novelty and fine addition to the white Darwins	5.00
Mount Everest. A pure white Darwin Tulip of great substance; anthers black. Large flower on a strong stem of glistening whiteness	12.00
Mrs. Grullemans. The purest white Darwin Tulip introduced. This is an improvement on the white Zwanenburg, also offered in this list. Flowers are large, of great substance, with pure white center and light sulphur-yellow anthers, on heavy, strong stem. Height 28 inches. The purity of its white is equal to that of the Easter Lily	25.00
Muriel. A purplish mauve Tulip edged lighter, center white. Very large flower on strong stem, about 30 inches high	10.00
Proserpine. A color which is very much like the single early Tulip of this name. Long flower on a tall stem. The flower is inclined to be lily-shaped, is a beautiful exhibition variety and a lovely novelty	12.00
Rose Glory. A glorious dark pink Tulip, large flower, center pure white. This is one of the finest Tulips lately introduced. Highly recommended	10.00
Wayside Gardens. A lovely bright pink Tulip of tremendous size, slightly edged lighter pink. Very large and well formed flower on tall, strong stem. The very best of all pink Darwin Tulips. The foreign introducer complimented us by calling this Tulip after our nursery. We have seen it and it is beautiful	8.00
White Glory. Pure white; a very beautiful Tulip. Large flower on tall and strong stem. Anthers are black	6.00
White City. A pure white Darwin of great beauty; very large flower. Anthers are black	15.00

Imported Dutch Peat

Imported Granulated Dutch Peat is used with excellent results in the making of garden soils, especially those soils that are very heavy, or very dry. Peat stimulates the development of roots of all plants and in the Summer it is an excellent moisture retainer, as it absorbs more than eight times its own weight in water. For mulching perennial beds it is ideal. A slight covering of two inches thrown over the bed will prevent all freezing and heaving. As a mulch for strawberries, it cannot be improved. When the Winter is over, peat may be dug in and should not be removed. It acts, therefore, in a double capacity. If one wishes to plant such shrubs as Rhododendrons, Kalmias, Azaleas, Blueberries or Arbutus, (all these shrubs and plants like an acid soil) we can safely guarantee that soil prepared with 50 per cent Peat and 50 per cent top soil will grow any of these plants mentioned to perfection.

Do not be mistaken, Peat is not a fertilizer, although often sold as such. It is a decomposed plant material which loosens the soil and prepares it so that the most delicate plants and trees may be grown to perfection. We do not advise its use for the making of lawns, as we do not believe that it does very much good there, but it may be applied with good success in the making of a vegetable garden, solely as a material to prepare the soil, eliminating the necessity of bringing in large quantities of top soil.

It is also an excellent ground cover under evergreens, Rhododendrons and Azaleas, keeping the soil moist and cool during the hot Summer, giving an exceptionally tidy appearance under these shrubs, as they should never be cultivated.

Peat may be stored in a garage or woodshed for any length of time, as there is nothing that will or can spoil it. We offer bags of 20 to 25 lbs. for $2.00 each. One such bag will cover about 12 square feet 2 inches deep.

Famous Dutch Breeder Tulips

The Breeder Tulips have been favorites in Holland for centuries, but it is only within recent years that they have become known and appreciated in America, and now they bid fair to rival the Darwin Tulips in popularity.

Their majestic size and remarkable colors place them distinctly in a class by themselves. Every lover of the more somber shades cannot fail to revel in the rich and artistic blendings of purple and old gold, bronze and terra cotta, brown and violet, and buff and maroon found among the Breeders. They are late to bloom but surpass in size and vigor the Darwins, although lacking the color brilliancy of the latter. The flowers are, many of them, sweet scented, and all splendid for cutting, as they retain for a long time their form and color.

* Velvet King. Immense flower on extra strong stem. Its robust growth makes it one of the most conspicuous: fine cup-shaped form; bright, dark royal purple, small, white, sharply defined base. Magnificent planted in masses of yellow pansies, or dotted through a large planting of the pale heliotrope Darwin Tulip, Dream. Height 31 inches	1.45	12.00
Vulcan. Beautifully shaped flower of a color unlike any other—reddish apricot, with broad margin of bright buff-yellow, interior dark apricot, edged yellow, with dark green base starred yellow. Extremely pretty when forced. Height 24 inches	1.85	16.00
William the Silent. Enormous, well formed flower, on tall, strong stem; dark purple-blue, with darker bloom on outer petals, white base. One more variety that we should like to see in the garden of every lover of Tulips. A fine novelty. Height 26 inches	4.50	40.00
* Wilberforce. Soft apricot, edged a clear tone of primrose-yellow, with broader yellow margin inside and green base; a medium sized flower of distinct color, on very tall stem. Splendid for the border. Height 32 inches	1.35	11.00
* Yellow Perfection. A large flower of remarkable beauty. Light bronzy-yellow, edged golden yellow, interior bronzy brown, yellow base starred green. Height 26 inches	1.00	7.75
* Choice Mixed Breeder Tulips. Mixed bulbs, as a rule, do not appeal to the planter of bulbs because it does not make possible the blending of colors. Breeder Tulips, however, are in a class by themselves, and their colors do permit easy blending. They are in shades of bronze, golden bronze, violet, buff, maroon and terra cotta. We suggest a liberal planting for cut flowers	$42.50 per 1000..	.70 4.50

Bunch-Flowered Tulips

A new type producing many flowers on a stem; very unusual and handsome.

10	100
Bulbs	Bulbs

Monsieur Mottet. The color of this Tulip is ivory-white, and instead of producing one flower on a stem as other Tulips do, it carries from four to six blossoms, which are in bloom all at the same time, on a stem about 18 inches tall. The result is a unique cut flower and also an excellent garden variety. We would like to see it included in every collection; it is not a freak but a useful addition $1.25 $10.00

Rembrandt Tulips

When the coloring matter of a "self color" has become split up into stripes and blotches, that particular flower is called "broken" or "rectified." When the Darwin Tulips "break" into these variations, they are called "Rembrandt" Tulips. They are very decorative but should be planted by themselves or in combination with the "Bizarres" and "Bybloemen," which are the broken forms of the Breeder Tulips. All require the same cultural treatment as the other May-flowering Tulips, blooming during the month of May in our latitude, and about a month earlier in far southern sections. We offer what we consider the finest varieties.

Parrot Tulips

We urge you to grow some of these quaintly shaped flowers particularly for house decoration. The artistic forms and colorings make them especially suitable for cut flower purposes; in the garden, if planted in borders or groups, they are not always satisfactory, as they lack the vigorous, straight stems of the other Tulips with the exception of one variety, the beautiful novelty "Fantasy" which has as straight and tall a stem as a Darwin Tulip. All Parrot Tulips are extremely effective planted in long drifts in front of evergreens.

Fantasy. The only Parrot Tulip with a straight, strong stem. This is a "sport" from the well known Darwin Tulip variety, Clara Butt, with the same habits in every way as to color, height, strength of stem, and time of flowering. The flowers are of quaint and beautiful form, the petals being laciniated, having curious excrescences on the outside. We have only a limited supply of this fine novelty which we will offer if ordered with other Tulips at	50c each.

Cottage or May-Flowering Tulips

The Cottage Tulips come into bloom in early May, after the Early Single varieties have passed. They are hardy and robust, with long, slender, but very stiff stems. The flowers are mostly long and oval, many of them with the petals gracefully reflexed. The Cottage Tulips as a class are rich in the more delicate and artistic shades of yellow, orange, and fawn with salmon, old rose and amber. They are the best of all Tulips for cutting and they develop best when planted outdoors, including the earlier kinds.

Alaska. A remarkable Hybrid Tulip of a clear bright yellow color and elegant form. The yellow is very even and soft. The form of the long, slender flower is interesting. The petals reflex slightly and the charm of the slender bloom is unusual. A fine Tulip to use with Mertensia virginica . Height 25 inches	$2.45	$22.00
Alcmene. Glowing rose, of bright hue, unmatched by that of any other variety; of fine rounding form, with exquisite base of cream white with iridescent blue color. Color soft, yet brilliant. Height 25 inches. 2.45	22.00
Ambrosia. A rich flower of pale terra cotta and amber, and a rosy glow throughout; a Tulip that commands attention wherever seen. A flower of great size and slender form, held on a very long, fine stem; for cutting or garden use it is superb. Plant with Faust, or Darwin of similar color. Height 28 inches	1.65	14.00
Arethusa. A large and freely opening cup of pure light chrome-yellow. This flower is much larger and more interesting and a great improvement over Pallida lutea . Height 25 inches	3.25	30.00
Argo. This extraordinary variety created considerable excitement at the recent International Flower Show where it was admired by all; while the flower is not large, it stands out amongst all others for its rich color. It is deep golden yellow, slightly penciled toward the top edges with orange, which deepens as the flower ages	1.25	10.00
Carrara. This pale Tulip has created, by its beauty, a sensation at the English shows; it is round and pure white as the marble from which it has its name. A most delicate flower. Height 25 inches	3.85	36.00
Colorado. Large, glowing orange and deep yellow bloom, long and slender, and held well on its tall stem. Flushed pinkish mauve with edge of bright orange	1.65	14.00
Dido. A perfect flower, excellent in color and form, poised firmly at the top of its straight stem. Color is deep rich pink with yellow stripes. It is an unusual and magnificent Tulip. Fragrant. Height 30 inches. 3.25	30.00
Eleanor Pratt. A lovely flower. The white which runs into the band of pale lavender becomes creamy at the top and sometimes there is a faint marking of gray-blue at the base of the outer petals. One rarely sees a more interesting Tulip than this variety. 28 inches ...	1.65	14.00
Lord Carnarvon. Has a well defined band of clear bright pink on its magnificent pointed petals which makes it amazing. The Tulip has an uncommon form, and the band or striping of pink makes it a wonderful flower. Vaseline form. It is one of the outstanding new Hybrid Tulips. Height 26 inches	2.65	24.00
Leda. A beautiful and very scarce variety. Vivid rose shading light rose towards the border	$3.00	each.
Marvel. Amber-yellow, with rosy lilac flush at center of petals; inside bright yellow shaded brown toward base with green star. Medium sized flower, becoming quite yellow with age. Height 25 inches	1.65	14.00
Mount Lowe. A marvelous Tulip in size and of rich and glowing pink, striped white; a magnificent flower. Ends of petals reflex slightly. The whole flower is uncommonly arresting and fine. Height 28 inches. 1.65	14.00
Mount Tacoma. A charming peony-like Tulip, resembling a semi-double, pure white peony. The flower is the size of a small peony, and the slightly laciniated petals, both upright and reflexing, give an effect never before seen in Tulips; very fine for the border. Height 28 inches. 9.00	86 00

Botanical Tulips and Wild Species

For the Rock Garden and Hardy Plant Border

The general characteristics of the various species, all of which are natives of Asia Minor and Central Asia, are bright colors and recurved petals. These Tulips do not always feel happy in their new surroundings and after two, or possibly three, seasons they will disappear. With care and the provision of suitable quarters they will flower quite satisfactorily. They feel best contented in rock gardens and borders.

Single Early Tulips

Including the Best of the Recent Introductions

They are the best fitted of all Tulips for forcing, and, if not grown too cool, some very early varieties may be had in flower by the end of December. When used for bedding, it is far better that new bulbs be secured each year, for the old bulbs will not do well the second season unless they have been allowed to mature and the foliage to die down before being removed from the beds. Even with the best care, it is uncertain whether the bulbs will again bloom successfully during a second season.

In the following list the handsomest sorts alone are represented, while many of the better known varieties are omitted because they are surpassed by the newer kinds. Detailed planting directions are included with the invoice.

Ground Covers Require Special Care in Selection

We have often been asked to suggest dwarf plants for planting between Tulips, in flower beds. We have noticed in several bulb catalogs information which is rather misleading and impractical because of climatic conditions. Planting ground covers between Tulips is greatly in vogue in England, because it is not necessary to cover Tulip beds in England with any straw or manure to protect them through the Winter. There are, of course, localities in the United States where this is not necessary, but in any state where the temperature drops to ten degrees above zero, it is essential that Tulips be protected in order to get the best results. Therefore, the planting of ground covers such as Arabis and Forget-me-nots, which are the two most popular plants used, is always more or less dangerous, because neither of these two plants like a very heavy covering during the Winter.

Viola cornuta, especially, makes a very fine ground cover, but if the Fall growth of these plants is damaged by a heavy covering, you will not get any blossoms at the time your Tulips are in bloom, therefore entirely defeating the purpose they were intended for. There are, of course, several varieties of plants which can be used for ground covers or which may be planted in conjunction with bulbs. Any one interested in carrying out an idea of this sort, we suggest they write us, so that we may recommend suitable material for this purpose in their respective localities.

Grown in Dutch Peat.*

Double Early Tulips

The double varieties cannot be forced so early or readily as the singles. One of the earliest, Salvator Rosa, may be had by the middle of January, while all other varieties may be flowered from January to March. The flowers are large and brilliant and are effective in beds or groups. If grown in pots, do not attempt flowering before they are well rooted.

Planting Table for Plants and Bulbs

PLANTING. The table below shows the number of plants or bulbs required to fill a circular bed of the dimensions given. In planting begin at outside row—where 6 inches apart, 3 inches from edge of bed; where 12 inches apart, 6 inches from edge of bed. It is customary among professionals in planting a bed to set the plants or bulbs somewhat closer together in the two outer rows, giving more space between each plant or bulb toward the center of the bed.

Diameter of bed	6 in. apart	12 in. apart	18 in. apart	Diameter of bed	6 in. apart	12 in. apart	18 in. apart
3 feet	28	7		12 feet	452	113	50
4 feet	48	12	6	13 feet	528	132	59
5 feet	80	20	8	14 feet	612	153	68
6 feet	112	28	13	15 feet	704	176	78
7 feet	152	38	17	16 feet	804	201	89

11 feet	380	95	42	20 feet	1256	314	139

A square bed will take about the same number of plants. For an oval bed, add length and breadth and divide by two. For example, an oval 9 feet long by 7 feet wide will require the same number of plants as a circular bed 8 feet in diameter.

Select Exhibition Hyacinths

Bulbs Measure 19 Centimeters or Over and are the Largest Obtainable

These are varieties selected for their large sized spikes, elegance of form, and beauty and richness of color. The bulbs are of mammoth size—the cream of the crop—and naturally command advanced prices. We offer this grade only in limited quantities and request early orders for them. Exhibition Hyacinth bulbs are unsurpassed for growing in pots but are not suitable for outdoor work; they are to grow in Hyacinth glasses; may be flowered in any large vase, if this is preferred to pot culture.

PRICE, ALL BULBS AS LISTED BELOW: $2.75 per 10; $25.00 per 100.

RED AND DEEP ROSE

Garibaldi. Brilliant vermillion-red; good early forcing variety.

Gertrude. Deep rose-pink; compact spikes on good stems. A very popular forcing variety; also used for bedding.

La Victoire. Shiny carmine-rose, with large, well filled spikes. A splendid bedder.

Marconi. Bright deep rose; short, broad trusses, borne on stiff stems. A good forcing but particularly fine outdoors.

LIGHT ROSE AND PINK

Pink Perfection. Light carmine-rose, with large, compact spikes. One of the best varieties in its class for pots.

General De Wet. Lively light pink with a lighter center; large trusses with good sized bells. Fine for forcing or bedding.

Lady Derby. Beautiful, clear rose-pink, with large, compact trusses. Early and fine for both forcing and bedding.

Queen of the Pinks. A very lovely pink; trusses broad and large, with good sized bells and strong stems. The best late forcing variety and good for all purposes.

LIGHT BLUE AND LILAC

Electra. Light, silvery blue with immense, well filled spikes. Early and one of the finest light blue Hyacinths for forcing.

Grand Lilas. Deep lilac; large spikes. Splendid for both bedding and forcing.

Perle Brilliant. Light blue, tinged lavender; splendid spikes with large, substantial bells. A fine pot Hyacinth and good for bedding.

Queen of the Blues. Clear, light porcelain blue; a strong growing variety with large, well formed trusses. One of the best of its color, particularly for bedding.

PURE WHITE

Arentine Arendsen. One of the finest whites; long spikes with large, snowy white bells. Early, fine for forcing and a good bedder.

Queen of the Whites. Pure white with long, well filled trusses of large, substantial bells. The finest white for potting.

La Grandesse. Pure white with fine, compact spikes. The best late forcing variety and fine for bedding as well.

L'Innocence. This is the most satisfactory all-around pure white. Compact spikes with large bells. Does well indoors and out.

BLUE AND DARK BLUE

Dr. Lieber. Lavender-blue, shaded violet, the general effect being deep blue. Bears large, compact spikes and is fine for early forcing as well as bedding.

Grand Maitre. Deep blue with long, compact spikes of large bells, on strong stems. One of the most popular blues; fine for pots as well as bedding.

King of the Blues. Dark violet-blue; splendid large trusses. One of the best known blue Hyacinths. Good for late forcing and bedding.

Menelik. Very dark, almost purple; well formed trusses. A splendid bedder and good for forcing.

YELLOW

City of Haarlem. The finest of the yellows. Well formed trusses of orange-yellow bells. An excellent variety for forcing and bedding.

VIOLET

Sir Wm. Mansfield. A splendid truss of ruby-violet. The best of its kind.

Named Single Bedding Hyacinths

Bulbs Measure 17-18 Centimeters—are Best Size for Outdoor Planting.

We strongly recommend the use of Named Bedding Hyacinths for outdoor planting in preference to unnamed Hyacinths under color. The latter are made up of many varieties in mixture, which are not uniform in height, color, or time of blooming. When named bedding Hyacinths are planted, uniformity in color, height of plant and time of blooming are insured, and at a cost not much in excess of unnamed bedding Hyacinths.

First size or exhibition size bulbs are too costly for bedding and flowers are too heavy, falling over from their own weight.

ROSE AND RED SHADES

General De Wet. Light pink, white center; large spike.

Lady Derby. Rose-pink; compact spike; strong stem.

Queen of the Pinks. Bright, glistening pink; tall, erect.

La Victoire. Shining carmine; fine, upright spike.

Miniature or Dutch Roman Hyacinths

Bulbs Measure 12-14 Centimeters.

These are the 3-year-old bulbs of the Dutch Hyacinths, easily forced and largely grown for Winter flowering. Can be forced in pots, pans, or grown in bowls and vases in Holland Fiber. They bloom later than the true French Roman Hyacinths but produce larger spikes. Five to six bulbs can be potted in a 6-inch pot. Treatment same as for Dutch Hyacinths. They are distinguished from the ordinary Dutch Hyacinths by a looser flower spike and small, neat bells. The colors are delightful and when planted in low pots or pans, one color to a pan, the effect is light and graceful, and no more charming decoration could be found.

Grand Maitre. Lavender-blue.

King of the Blues. Violet-blue.

Queen of the Pinks. Rose-pink.

La Victoire. Carmine-red.

City of Haarlem. Yellow.

PRICE, ABOVE VARIETIES: $1.25 per 10; $12.00 per 100.

French Roman Hyacinths

French Roman Hyacinths are among the earliest bulbs to be had in flower. The bulbs arrive from France late in August, and, like all bulbs grown in the south of France, they may be had in flower from November all through the Winter months, if potted up in September and at intervals of every two weeks. They are much prized for pots or cutting on account of their graceful appearance and delicate fragrance. The bulbs are about the same size as the Miniature Dutch Hyacinths offered on this page, and may be planted six or seven to a 5- or 6-inch pot, or ten to twelve bulbs to an 8- or 9-inch bulb pan. The flowers are smaller than those of the Dutch Hyacinths, and are borne in great profusion, the larger bulbs frequently having three to five graceful spikes of bloom. Their ease of culture and earliness of bloom suggest their use. They are not hardy, and should not be planted outdoors.

Narcissi, or Daffodils, are one of the most popular of Spring-flowing bulbs. Blooming before the Winter snows are quite forgotten, they bring to the garden its first display of color, spreading out their hoard of yellow beauty in response to the coaxing of the April sun. From March until well into May the Daffodils are in bloom, and by a judicious selection of varieties the borders may be kept bright for over a month. Whether the great trumpets of the new monsters are handsomer than the dainty elegance of the small-crowned sorts must

Bulbs for Hardy Border and Rock Garden

ROCK GARDENING, during the past few years, has become very popular. Being the largest growers of rock plants in this country, we have naturally been getting a great many requests from our customers to supply them with certain varieties of bulbs that may be suitably used in rock gardens. Unfortunately, Quarantine 37 has taken away from us some of our most valuable varieties of bulbs for this particular form of gardening! All tiny Daffodils, such as Narcissus Bulbocodium, commonly known as the Hoop-Petticoat Daffodil; Narcissus Triandrus Albus, known as "Angel's Tears;" Narcissus Cyclamineus, or the Cyclamen Daffodil, etc. However, we are still able to obtain the Wild Crocus, and Wild Tulip species, and other small bulbs such as the Muscaris, Scillas, Snowdrops, Fritillarias, etc. On page 52, for instance, you will find two very good collections of Wild Crocuses. One collection consists of varieties that bloom in the Fall during the months of September and October, while the other collection consists of early Spring-flowering varieties, blooming wherever possible in February or March. Do not confuse these Wild Crocuses with the well known Dutch varieties. These we do not like to plant in rock gardens, but suggest their use for edging or planting in the lawn only.

Crocus Imperati, Zonatus, Speciosus, Tommasinianus, etc., are great favorites with everyone familiar with rock gardening. Crocus Speciosus, Sativus and Zonatus, for instance, if planted between low-growing varieties of Sedum or Thyme, create a striking effect in October when flowers in rock gardens as a rule are rather scarce. It should be borne in mind, however, that in order to have success with these Wild Crocuses, especially Autumn-flowering varieties, they should be planted immediately upon arrival.

Tulip species, such as Tulipa Persica, Sylvestris, Clusiana, are a delight to watch when they put in their appearance early in April.

Erythroniums or Dog's-tooth Violets, in variety, are natives of this country, and we have made provisions to produce them on our own nursery so that we may be able to take care of the growing demand for these bulbs. There are, of course, innumerable varieties of semi-bulbous plants, such as Trilliums, Corydalis, Mertensias, etc., that we do not list in our bulb catalog, but these can all be found in our hardy plant catalog which we will gladly send you upon request.

The Hardy Border Is Not Complete Without Bulbs

Bulbs for the hardy border consist of a greater number of varieties than those that are suitable only for the rock garden. We do not believe the hardy plant border is complete without a liberal planting of Darwin, Cottage and Breeder Tulips, Narcissi and other bulbs. The most practical way to go about planting these bulbs in the border is to plant them under dwarf, shallow-rooting herbaceous plants. For instance, all varieties of Thyme and dwarf Sedums are excellently planted right over Tulips. There are also several varieties of Veronicas such as Veronica Rupestris, Amethystina, Royal Blue, True Blue, and several more, which will live in perfect harmony with bulbs. The Tulip or Daffodil bulbs which are planted underneath these dwarf herbaceous plants will last for a great many years.

The Use of Lilies in the Rock Garden

Lilies, particularly, have been grown successfully in hardy plant borders, but we recommend three varieties that may be used in rock gardens, and these are Lilium Tenuifolium, Rubellum and Kramerii. All three are dainty, and are best planted in rock gardens where they can be given a sheltered location. All other varieties are splendid material for the hardy plant border.

Lilium Regale

or Myriophyllum

The Queen of Lilies

Growing anywhere under almost any condition, establishing itself without any trouble or effort on your part, it is in our mind the easiest and one of the most beautiful, and hardiest Lilies in cultivation. Lilium Regale is truly a royal Lily, worthy of a place in every garden. A vigorous grower with sturdy stems; 4 to 5 feet high, densely covered with long, lanceolate foliage. Center of flower flushed with yellow, shading to white at the outer edges; externally the flowers are streaked with brown, shaded through the almost translucent petals with a delightful pearly tint; the contrast between the rich color of the reverse of the petals and the gold shading of the throat is extraordinarily beautiful. Thrives in any good rich soil and is the easiest of all Lilies to grow. Stem-roots; plant Fall or early Spring, about 5 inches deep. July flowering. In order to bring this unusually handsome Lily into the hands of every flower lover and gardener we offer it in 5 sizes, the smallest of which will produce 3 to 4 good flowers, not as many on one stem as is shown in the illustration which is a spike produced by an 8 to 9 inch bulb. (Our stock is the largest in cultivation in America).

Lilium Candidum

(MADONNA LILY)

Choice Northern Grown. Arrive in August or September.

Maeterlinck refers to this loveliest of Lilies when he says: "The great white Lily, the old lord of the gardens, the only authentic prince among all the commonality issuing from the kitchen-garden, the ditches, the copses, the pools and the moors, among the strangers come from none knows where, with his invariable six-petaled chalice of silver, whose nobility dates back to that of the gods themselves, the immemorial Lily raises his ancient sceptre, august, inviolate, which creates around it a zone of chastity, silence and light."

Be very careful that you plant the right type of this beautiful Lily in your garden. There is an early-flowering variety which is grown in the south of France. These should not be used in America; if planted in the garden, they are prone to disease and are unsatisfactory. In Europe this type is called L. candidum speciosum. This variety is only too often sold because they cost less.

The true type to use for the garden is the L. candidum from the north of France; it is easily recognized by its white, fleshy scales, by those that know both types.

Plant in loam or sandy soil, in an open, fully exposed place, surrounding the bulb with sharp sand and placing it somewhat on its side. After it has become fully established leave it alone as it much resents disturbance at the roots. If necessary to transplant, do so as soon as the flower stems die down. Each 10 100 Bulbs Bulbs

Lily bulbs arrive in this country during the late Fall. Brodiaeas (Hardy)

These plants have a small bulb, producing grassy leaves near the ground, and very slender, but stiff, naked stems bearing a head of waxy flowers of great lasting quality. All are pretty. Their culture is the same as for Narcissi, and just as easy as for that flower. They are easily naturalized in almost any soil. Plant them about 3 inches deep, and leave them alone. They are especially happy under oak and deciduous trees, in crevices in rocks, or in rough, gritty soils.

(MARIPOSA OR BUTTERFLY TULIPS) (Hardy) 10 100
Bulbs Bulbs

Until one has seen a good collection of these plants, he has no idea how much Nature can do in the variation of one flower. All Mariposas are forms of Calochortus, yet there are several strains, all with the slender grace of stem belonging to the species. Cup-shaped flowers, one to many on a stem, wonderfully marked with eyes and dots and pencilings in rich colors, are characteristics. Yet each strain carries out the plan on a color scheme of its own, and then can be compared only with the orchids in wonderful variability of beauty. "Mariposa" is simply the Spanish word for butterfly, and is applied to these Tulips because the eyes and markings of the flowers are so much like those on a butterfly's wings. The bulbs are small and should be planted about 2½ inches deep and covered during Winter.

Crocuses—Wild Species and Dutch Varieties

For Rock Garden, Border or Lawn

Besides the Dutch Crocuses there are certain species that bloom very much earlier in the year, often before the snow has gone. The flowers of these wild sorts are smaller than those of the Dutch kinds, but they are as vigorous and free as the others. Given a sunny position in the rock garden, or a sheltered position in grass where the sun may encourage them freely, they will surprise you by their hardy appearance in the face of cold and storms.

Crocus Imperati, pale lilac with a buff jacket, often flowers in late February, and is closely followed by Crocus Sieberi, a fuller, purer mauve sort; it has as a companion the deep rich yellow Crocus Susianus, which is even more attractive in the bud stage with its dark, rich, brown flowers on the exterior of the segments. Once planted they will take care of themselves for many years. Then comes Crocus Tommasinianus, an exquisite vaselike form, in color varying from a pale mauve to quite a rich purple. This variation is one of its great attractions. These all increase as freely as do the Dutch varieties.

Colchicum (Meadow Saffron) (Hardy)

A group of Autumn-flowering bulbs with large, crocus-like blossoms appearing after the foliage has died down. They are strongly recommended for planting in grass, where their bold delightfully chequered flowers are seen to the best advantage, and producing a succession of beautiful crocus-like flowers, literally carpeting the ground. Among the most beautiful of woodland flowers and are equally at home in lawn or rock garden, where they keep up a succession of flowers from September till November; i.e., at a season when outdoor flowers are scarce.

* Hyemalis (Winter Aconite). These produce at about the same time that the Crocuses are in bloom, little yellow flowers like Buttercups about three inches above the ground, with settings of fine green, frilled-like collars which never seem to mind the worst of weather conditions. Will thrive under trees where few other plants can hold their own. They seed themselves freely and colonies from self-sown seed are soon formed. Foxtail Lily; Giant Asphodels

These astonishing plants are just beginning to find their way into American gardens. They come from India, Persia, and Central Africa, and are among the noblest of bulbous plants. A well grown clump of Eremuri may justly be regarded as an achievement to be proud of. The great flower stalk, eight feet tall and more, rises from a crowded tuft of long, narrow leaves, and is crowned by a flower spike two to three feet long, composed of closely set, bell-shaped flowers, in colors of rose, yellow, white and coppery pink.

When flowering is over, the foliage disappears entirely, but reappears very early in the Spring, when it is advisable to protect the young flower spike from late frosts. To fill the great bare space left when the plant goes to rest, Aster may be planted near it.

In Winter a mulch of straw over the crown is a safeguard. These plants enjoy a rich soil, and a well drained, sunny situation. Plant about 5 to 6 inches deep.

Fritillaria (Mission Bells)

NATIVE VARIETIES

(Hardy)

Fritillarias are bulbous plants of the woodlands. The stems are leafy and most graceful, with many pendent, bell-like flowers. One species found in Southern California is called "Mission Bells," while in other places local species are called Brown or Chocolate Lilies.

In the West there are two types: The true Mission Bells do better in a clay soil in full sun. The woodland Fritillarias like woodland soils and conditions, and in cultivation some shade and a free soil. They have proved hardy as far north as Wisconsin. This is hardly a matter for surprise, as F. lanceolata is a southern form of F. camschatcensis which is found in Alaska and crosses into Siberia.

Galanthus (Snowdrops)
(Hardy)

These are particularly effective under hedges, under cedar trees and in thin woodland. They are the first to open in the Spring and are very lovely. They dislike being moved and should be left alone to naturalize themselves. Plant two inches deep; mulch in Winter with straw, hay, leaves or well-decayed manure. The single-flowering Snowdrops, if they are left alone, soon take to producing double flowers. The differences and variations in the varieties of Snowdrops are so comparatively small that it does not seem worth while to offer them in variety.

Freesia

(Tender—Indoor Only)

This is one of the most beautiful of all Cape bulbs, possessing a peculiar grace of form, and its fragrance is most delightful, one pot of a dozen bulbs being sufficient to perfume a whole house.

When planting Freesia bulbs in pots or pans, they may be spaced 2 inches apart and must be staked as they grow; if planted in benches they may be set 4 inches in rows 2 inches apart.

The soil should be a light sandy loam; old soil is the best in which some other crop has been grown during the previous season. This may be enriched with well-decayed stable or sheep manure. The best time to plant is September or early October, if planted earlier they will come up unevenly for the reason that the bulbs will not have had sufficient rest. For late flowering, plant in November.

To produce the largest and finest flowers they should be grown cool; a day temperature of 60 degrees and night temperature of 45 to 50 degrees suits them best; they like plenty of water at all times and especially so if they are subjected to high temperature.

* Rainbow Mixture of Freesias

The new colored Freesias which have been introduced lately have been selected from thousands of seedlings. Some of the seedlings not named are as fine as the named varieties. It is these better seedlings we offer. If you should live in that part of America where there is little or no frost during the Winter, plant some of these bulbs outside and you will be surprised at the wonderful cut flowers these mixed bulbs produce. They are also excellent for indoor culture in pots.

Calla Lilies (Tender—Indoor Only)

These like a stiff, clayey soil with a small quantity of shredded cow manure. Bulbs should be set with the crown, or top, protruding just above the surface. When in growing condition, warm water given several times during the week will hasten the flowering period and increase the number of blooms. When using the large sized bulbs, plant but one in a pot; smaller ones, two. We call especial attention to the Yellow Calla, which is one of the grandest varieties in cultivation, and most valuable for house or conservatory decoration. See the description below. Plant Callas indoors only in the Fall or Spring of the year.

Hardwood Ashes

Unleached hardwood ashes are the best source from which may be derived the most needed fertilizer—POTASH. Ninety-five per cent of the gardens in the United States today need Potash badly. Phosphates and nitrates, as a rule have been abundantly applied by most gardeners, but Potash, owing to its scarcity, has not been used where it ought to have been. We have contracted with a very large hardwood lumber company to supply us with all the hardwood ashes needed on our nursery, and we have put up a few hundred barrels so that we may be able to help our customers in securing this most valuable material. Apply it either in the Fall or Spring at the rate of one pound to ten square feet. Hardwood ashes cannot be sold in bags, and are therefore offered in barrels weighing 200 lbs. each. We charge $6.00 for a 200-lb. barrel.
